

A Guide To The Wild Side

(NAPSA)—Many families looking for fun, affordable and unique things to do and see around Orlando, Florida say Seminole County is the “natural” place to play and stay.

For adventures in a real Florida setting, consider these hidden treasures:

Wandering the waterways of Central Florida is just one fun way to enjoy the region.

Natural Adventure—Whether it’s fishing, canoeing, an airboat adventure or a romantic dinner cruise, Seminole County offers water activities for all interests and budgets.

Affordable Accommodations—Check-in to a brand-new luxury hotel or an historic B&B. Rates average a third less than elsewhere in Central Florida and parking is free.

For the History Buff—Stroll historic Sanford, Longwood and Oviedo, visiting museums and antique shops. See “The Senator,” the world’s oldest and largest bald cypress tree, more than 138 feet high and 17 feet around.

Tee It Up—at any of 13 courses in one of the best golfing destinations in the world.
