A Must-Have For Baking Enthusiasts

(NAPSA)—There's a good reason why interest is rising in baking cookbooks. It's because few can resist the great taste and creative fun of baked goods made from scratch. This may also account for the popularity of a book that showcases today's favorite baking recipes and highlights baking classics that are among Gold Medal Flour's most requested recipes, year after year.

From Chocolate Fudge-Raspberry to Crisp Vegetable Stew with Cheddar Cheese Dumplings, "Betty Crocker Baking For Today" (Wiley, $24.95) is a must-have cookbook chock-full of trusted recipes for any meal or occasion.
