Calling All Cookie Cutters

(NAPSA)—Think your cookies take the cake? A new contest could give you your just desserts. Just upload a photo of your best batch of cookies at Allrecipes.com for a chance to win a new electric range from Samsung featuring 20-minute SteamQuick cleaning technology, or one of three camcorders. The site's users will vote on the photos and choose the winner of the Allrecipes.com and Samsung Cookie Photo Contest. Winners will be announced at the end of January.
