

American-Made Products

(NAPSA)—Buying products that are made in the U.S.A. means more than national pride and a strong belief in American know-how. Domestic goods are the backbone of the country's economy, manufactured by millions of hardworking Americans who are finding it increasingly difficult to make an honest wage.

The problem? Stores are crowded with merchandise from other countries—nations whose regulatory and economic policies make it difficult (if not impossible) for the U.S. to compete in a “fair and free” marketplace. Not only that, but these goods are pushing American products off shelves, making it harder for patriotic consumers to find them.

Buying products made in the U.S.A. helps keep manufacturing jobs here at home.

Fortunately, consumers do have a place to go to buy items made on American soil: a Web site called MadeinUSAForever.com. Created by Todd Lipscomb, the site—which features hundreds of products ranging from clothing to tools, from toys to flags—is working to protect America's ability to produce, create jobs and remain a world leader. The site is even offering free shipping for a limited time on orders of $40 or more; simply enter the coupon code “MadeinUSADeal.”

To learn more, visit the Web site at www.MadeinUSAForever.com.