

HOLIDAY Entertaining

Avoid Sticky Situations

(NAPSA)—Santa's helper in a bottle? Experts say the right cleaning product can serve as a handy holiday helper from the first day of the season to the last.

With these handy helpers it can be easier to clean up before the guests arrive and deal with the inevitable holiday stains, scuffs and spills. Some stains can come out with a little soap and water, others—such as candle wax, crayon marks and tape marks—need more power.

Orange-based citrus products can clean fingerprints off refrigerators and other appliances.

Crayon, gum, scuff marks, grease and makeup usually can be removed with help from citrus-based products. One contains an orange ingredient to get at tough stains.

The product, Goo Gone, is also known to remove, oil, tape, soap scum, shoe polish, kitchen grease, asphalt and adhesives. When wrapping presents, the cleaner can come in especially handy for removing sticky price tags or gummy adhesives.

The product, in spray and screw-capped bottles, is available at Target, Wal-Mart, Home Depot and other home stores, as well as supermarkets and hardware stores.

More information is on the Web site at www.magicamerican.com.