Contest Takes Kids Out To The Ball Game

(NAPSA)—A new contest may give Little Leaguers® a sporting chance to play a part in a big time baseball event.

The contest asks youth baseball and softball players to write—in 300 words or less—why they dream of playing in the Little League® Baseball World Series Championship and what the experience would mean to them.

Two grand prize winners of the Stouffer's "Dream Ticket" Contest will be flown with three of their family members to Williamsport, Pennsylvania to attend the Little League Baseball World Series Championship game.

The grand prize winners also will receive a year's supply of Stouffer's entrées.

Entries will be judged on originality, creativity, enthusiasm and inspiration. Essays should be typed or printed on an 8½" x 11" piece of paper with the entrant's name, address and daytime phone number on the top of the page.
