Cool Ideas For Warm Weather Fun

(NAPSA)—For many, warm weather means outdoor fun and entertaining. More than fun, outdoor activities may be good for you as well.

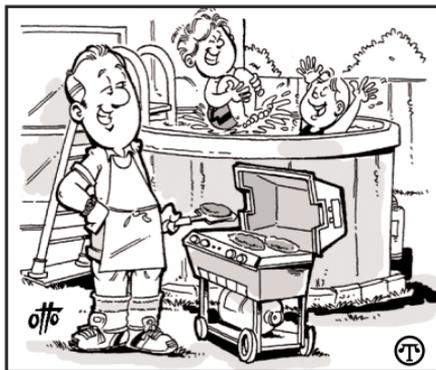

A recent Harris study conducted for the Outdoor Industry Association shows that outdoor activities greatly enrich lives by reducing stress, connecting people with family and friends and improving mental and physical health.

“When the thermometer rises, so does the popularity of outdoor parties and entertaining,” said Liza Lovallo, director of Shoppers Advantage, a member-based buying service. With that in mind, the experts at Shoppers Advantage have identified a number of products that they say can add to your enjoyment of the outdoors.

- Spark up the barbecue. The aroma of grilled delicacies can serve as the perfect centerpiece to successful outdoor entertainment. They suggest using high-tech brand name grills such as Weber, Coleman and Char-Broil. The Fire and Ice Thermos Grill from Char-Broil features a portable grill and cooler combo for outings to the park, beach or sporting events.

- Dive into the pool. For those who want to transform the backyard into a relaxing hot weather oasis, there are aboveground pools from Poolmaster, Swimways and Intex in a variety of sizes.

- Let your green thumb shine with gardening equipment and yard tools from Polygreenhouse, Rion, WeedEater and Mastercraft to create a landscape that is the talk of the town.

- Catch the breeze with bikes, scooters and bike trailers for the entire family from Schwinn, Mon-goose and Pacific Cycle.

- Build your kids' imagination with swing sets, playhouses and miniature jeeps from Fisher-Price, Peg-Perego and Little Tikes.

- Tee it up and swing for the green with the latest golf equipment from Titleist, Taylor Made, Wilson and Dunlop.

- Spice up your barbecue and make a splash with patio, pool and beach furniture from Coleman, Texsport and Lifetime.
