

GIFT IDEAS

Creating Personalized, One-Of-A-Kind Gifts

(NAPSA)—Picture this: creative, personal, one-of-a-kind gift ideas for any occasion. It's possible—by turning favorite photos, memories and artwork into original presents that both friends and loved ones will cherish—just visit your local Kinko's.

- Photo calendars. Create the ultimate keepsake that will be appreciated all year long. Whether your gift needs are for the holidays, Valentine's Day, Mother's Day or back to school, just stop by Kinko's with your favorite photos and choose from one of four calendar designs. The photo-a-month deluxe calendar features a color picture for every month of the year. Or pick a favorite snapshot to create a decorative border, year-on-a-page or tear-off photo calendar.

- Photo greeting cards. Want to add pizzazz and personality to a special greeting? Convert your favorite horizontal or vertical snapshot into a custom greeting card with either a full-photo cover or one of a wide variety of designer borders suited to the occasion. Photo cards are available in boxes of 25 and can be printed with a customized message of up to six lines on the inside.

- More fun with photos. Whether you'd like to give Grandma a photo enlargement of your baby's first step or add a festive border and original caption to a favorite family ski trip picture, the Kodak PictureMaker kiosk at Kinko's can turn your traditional or digital images into a one-of-a-kind gift. The kiosks feature special tools to reduce or eliminate red eye, crop and enlarge images and even restore color. Thanks to sign and banner capabilities, at select locations you can even transform your snapshot into a giant vinyl banner or a 18x24-inch mounted poster in a snap.

- Personalized stationery. With more than 100 designer papers and matching envelopes, you can select just the right set of everyday or seasonal stationery for your favorite pen pal. If it's your turn at the top of everyone's gift list, there are designer papers for making personalized wedding or party invitations, birth announcements and even thank-you cards.

A one-stop retail shop can be a great place to create unique gifts for all occasions.

- Scrapbooking supplies. Looking for a gift for the scrapbook fan in your family? Choose from a wide assortment of specialty papers that are acid-free, just right for the creative shutterbug looking to make memories last a lifetime. And since they're made with recycled paper, they're better for the environment, too. Don't forget to give your family historian a favorite photo to add to his or her scrapbook by adding text or a frame with the help of the Kodak PictureMaker kiosk.

- Colorful keepsakes. A wide variety of computer, printing, finishing and binding services provide the right tools for any do-it-yourself gift giver. Make a memory combining a collection of personal photos, heartfelt notes and a personalized cover to make a unique gift for family and friends. Or create a set of laminated placemats designed around beloved children's refrigerator drawings—making each meal a special family event.

To find the nearest Kinko's location and for more on the latest services, visit www.kinkos.com or call 1-800-2-KINKOS.