

MAKING LIFE MORE FUN

Cruising America

(NAPSA)—It's a favorite American pastime that evokes emotions of freedom, adventure and pure adrenaline—riding cruiser motorcycles. The popular bikes account for more than half of the on-highway motorcycle market. With so many hitting the road, the following list can help steer riders to some of the most popular places to cruise:

Dreaming about a tropical getaway? Take a ride in a paradise on Earth, from fast-paced Miami Beach, Fla., to laid-back Key West. On your journey, discover sandy white beaches and breathtaking ocean views. Once you get to Key West, stop off at the Hemingway House, where Ernest Hemingway penned some of his most famous novels.

Or how about a tour of Cape Cod from Sandwich to Provincetown, Mass.? Here you can view the beauty of the Bay, discover quaint New England villages and enjoy unique shopping. In Provincetown, be sure to take in a bit of history and check out the Pilgrim Monument that was built in honor of the Mayflower's passengers.

Route 66 is an historic stretch of road encompassing more than 2,000 miles from Chicago to Los Angeles. Opened in 1926, the nostalgic highway is filled with famous cafés, landmarks and varying climates and terrain. For the ultimate road trip, hop on a Suzuki Boulevard C90T and get your kicks on Route 66.

See nature at its finest, and pilot a Boulevard S83 from Sedona, Ariz., to the Grand Canyon. Take in the views of red rocks, mountains and incredible natural beauty as you explore the grandeur of the canyon.

For cruising America's highways, there's nothing like Suzuki's Boulevard M109R, riders say.

Take a ride from Southern California to Northern California via Pacific Coast Highway with the Pacific Ocean as the backdrop. Riders can visit myriad quaint towns along the way, such as Carmel-by-the-Sea or Morro Bay.

While this list provides a guideline to exciting destinations, riders can discover their own routes exploring the beauty of America on two wheels.

No matter the destination or riding style, Suzuki has Boulevard cruiser motorcycles for every lifestyle. Its most powerful, high-performance muscle-cruiser yet is the all-new Boulevard M109R. The Boulevard line features nine cruisers with matching accessories to fit every need.

For more information on Suzuki motorcycles, visit www.suzukicycles.com.