

MAKING LIFE MORE FUN

Delightful Ways To Demonstrate Your Smarts And Skills

Pit your wits and knowledge against family and friends playing popular TV quiz shows at home.

(NAPSA)—It doesn't have to be challenging to find a fun way to spend a family night at home playing games or to create great party entertainment.

That's because you can now challenge everyone to two of the most popular game shows on television. "Jeopardy" and "Wheel of Fortune" are available for the Wii and Nintendo DS.

The "Jeopardy" game features more than 2,400 clues presented by Alex Trebek, as up to three players test their knowledge.

The "Wheel of Fortune" game is voiced by show hosts Pat Sajak and Vanna White and follows the show's format by putting up to three players at the wheel to solve more than 8,000 word puzzles to win virtual cash.

You can order the games and learn more at www.thq.com.
