Easy Weekend Projects

(NAPSA)—Breakfast on a roll. That's what you can get by adding casters to a table. It's just one of the clever projects in a free 12-page booklet that inspires do-it-yourselfers to find new and innovative uses for furniture in their homes. The booklet, created by Minwax®, is aptly called Easy Weekend Projects™. It is filled with simple tips and easy-to-do projects. Here are just a few:

- Four-Wheel Furniture.

From a kitchen island to breakfast table, one basic piece can lead a double life just by adding a set of wheels. Simply giving the piece a two-toned stain takes it beyond basic.

- Vanity Flair. In just a few easy steps, an antique chest is turned into a bathroom beauty. The booklet tells readers how to bring this trendy, expensive style into their bathroom for a fraction of the cost. It advises readers how to select the appropriate chest, find the right top and give the vanity a beautiful finish.

- Chest Game. When it comes to kids' rooms, it's all about filling the present need while anticipating the future function. The Easy Weekend Projects booklet shows readers how they can use two dressers and plywood to create a bunk bed/desk/storage center for a young child, and how to later adapt the piece to suit the needs of a teenager.

Consumers can pick up a copy of the booklet at participating Minwax retailers or they can request one by visiting www.minwax.com, or by writing to Weekend Projects Offer, P.O. Box 1023, Grand Rapids, MN 55745.
