

Pointers for Parents

Educational Programming DVDs Create An Appealing Classroom In Which To Learn

(NAPSA)—For children who have a thirst for learning about the world around them, a popular series of DVDs provides a variety of real-life experiences through “video field-trips,” as they discover what lies beyond the classroom.

The All About series, developed by GT Media, is fun-filled, educational entertainment with real life adventures for children between the ages of 4 to 7. The dynamic story telling, boasts a relaxed learning environment, rather than a formal classroom atmosphere. The newest releases in this series, available February 12th at retailers nationwide, include:

- All About Dinosaurs which takes kids on a journey led by host Backpack Jack and his friends as they delve into the mysterious and mammoth world of dinosaurs.

This DVD also includes All About Horses, an exploration into the exhilarating equine world in a live-action video designed for the budding rider, future rodeo star or simply anyone with a love for horses.

- All About Garbage and Recycling follows Backpack Jack and his young friends as they dive into the big, stinky and amazing story of garbage and recycling. They learn the importance of recycling in our journey to make the world more eco-friendly.

This DVD also includes All About Trucks, an exciting road trip that demonstrates what it's like to sleep in the cab of an 18 wheeler, hook up the trailer to the truck and even talk to other truckers on the CB radio!

Video adventures give children a chance to experience the world around them.

The second installment, available April 8th at retailers nationwide, includes:

- All About Creepy Crawlies which takes you up close and personal with all kinds of amazing creatures that slither, crawl and fly. This DVD also includes All About the Circus, a big top adventure filled with circus fun. Explore the secrets of the human cannonball, work with a wild leopard and learn what it takes to be a high-flying aerialist.

- Then, get ready to twist, roll and dive with the double feature All About Airplanes and All About Helicopters. Fly to supersonic heights with the Navy's Blue Angel stunt pilots and meet real pilots like Captain Mike who will give you an inside look at the cockpit of his plane and explain the controls. Then meet a 12 year old pilot named Ryan who proves that you're never too young for some high-flying adventure.