Face Of Suspense

(NAPSA)—A new book weaves an intricate tale of suspense and romance as it pits beauty against beast.

Fatal Flaw

Best-selling and award-winning author Ginna Gray's latest book Fatal Flaw (Mira Books, $6.99), follows a small-town detective as she hunts a serial killer who preys on women who've undergone cosmetic surgery.

The police have had no luck with their investigation until Detective Casey O'Toole is assigned to jump-start the case. She quickly discovers two unsettling facts: The victims were all patients of a prominent plastic surgeon, and each of them bears an uncanny resemblance to herself.

Ruled out as a suspect, plastic surgeon Dr. Mark Adams offers to assist Casey in any way he can and, despite her resistance, their relationship quickly turns personal. The pressure on Casey to find the killer mounts steadily as terror grips the small mountain community. Then a stunning twist leads Casey to the truth—and to the face of a killer that is nearly as familiar as her own.

Gray sold her first novel in 1983, after winning the Golden Heart Award, given by Romance Writers of America for the best unpublished novel in a category. She has been working as a full-time writer ever since.
