Fashion And Beauty

(NAPSA)—Have you noticed a return of the lady and gentleman in fashion and beauty today? We are once again seeing beautiful silhouettes and images of true femininity and masculinity.

A leading designer is marking the return to style with a pair of new fragrances.

One noted designer that is celebrating this movement is Bijan, who has introduced modern, new fragrances for men and women that convey luxurious elegance.

Bijan Style Women is an unmistakably feminine fragrance which intertwines purity and subtle sexiness, while Bijan Style Men is distinctively masculine and seductive. These scents truly define womanly charms and manly bravado—right down to the bottle colors: pink and blue.
