

BUDGET STRETCHING TRAVEL IDEAS

France And Italy By Rail

(NAPSA)—A new, bargain-priced rail pass for Europe's two most popular tourist countries—France and Italy—is available for the first time exclusively from Rail Europe.

Go anywhere between Paris and Rome for an extremely affordable price and take in the great artworks of Monet and Michelangelo, DaVinci and Daumier. Cities like Paris, Avignon and Nice in France and Rome, Venice and Florence in Italy are within convenient travel range since your scope of travel in both countries is unlimited.

The new combo France 'n Italy Pass is good for four days of rail travel anytime during a two-month period. It is priced at $279 1st class, $239 2nd class. Up to six additional rail days can be added at $28 and $25 per day.

When two or more travel together, a Saverpass version costs $239 1st class and $209 2nd class, and a 2nd class Youthpass (under 26 years) is also available. You can travel anytime—consecutively or a few days in between. Children from four to eleven pay half the adult fare (under four is free).

For booking the France 'n Italy Pass contact your travel agent or Rail Europe at 1-888-382-7245, online at www.raileurope.com.
