Freedom Of Choice

(NAPSA)—You may already know comparison shopping sites as a fast, convenient way to locate and compare products, stores and prices online. Now, the innovative comparison shopping site, PriceGrabber.com, offers the most flexible gift you've ever given—the PriceGrabber Visa Gift Card.

For a present that pleases: A gift card lets the recipient choose.

This prepaid debit card lets you give the gift of choice. Recipients can shop anywhere Visa debit cards are accepted. You can buy a gift card for $25 up to $250 without any additional upfront fees, and the physical card can be shipped directly to the gift recipient.

For something more specific, PriceGrabber also offers searches by attributes, such as a movie's rating, a computer's processor speed or a sweater's fabric.

To maximize your budget, you can create a customized Product Tracker to tell you when a price has dropped to whatever price you specify. This feature is also capable of notifying you when a hard-to-get product is in stock—perfect for snagging the most popular gifts this year. To compare gift prices, visit www.pricegrabber.com.
