It's About Time

(NAPSA)—For those who crave color in their timepieces, this year's guilty pleasure is a chronograph in an array of fashion colors: gold, silver, black, blue and pink. The models, from SWATCH, feature polished or brushed steel cases with crystals set in sunbrushed dials with lightweight aluminum or steel bracelets. All feature chrono subdials at 2 and 10 o'clock and second hand at the 6 o'clock position. Included in the line:

Full-Blooded Gold catches the eye with a flash of golden lightning. The gold dial and bracelet are sure to catch your eye.

Full-Blooded Night offers a classic look with a glossy black-steel bracelet.

Full-Blooded Blue presents an understated, matte pastel-blue aluminum bracelet.

Full-Blooded Pink offers a matte pastel-pink aluminum bracelet and a sunbrushed pink dial.

Full-Blooded Silver gives a sparkling finish to the line with a matte silver bracelet and dial.
