

MAKING FAMILY LIFE MORE FUN

Las Vegas For Families? You Bet!

(NAPSA)—Las Vegas—the home of drive-through wedding chapels and one-armed bandits—is surely a town for adults, but can “Sin City” really be a place for family fun? On your next trip to the strip, check out these “kid-friendly” offerings, which guarantee a good time for everyone during mom or dad’s next business trip. From mysterious white tigers to colorful chocolate fun—there’s something for the whole family when discovering the legendary Las Vegas Strip.

A Four-Story Monument to Chocolate

If you wish that everything in the world could be coated in a colorful candy shell, be sure to make your way to M&M’s World in the Showcase Mall (3785 Las Vegas Blvd. South). This 28,000 square-foot, four-story monument to chocolate provides a “retail-tainment” experience the whole family will enjoy. M&M’s World is your one-stop resource for all things M&M’s—from candy and calculators to clothing and cuckoo clocks, choose from a wide variety of collectible and limited edition merchandise. Featuring a free 3D movie, over 3,000 exclusive M&M’s souvenirs and merchandise, an authentic M&M’s NASCAR currently driven by Kenny Schrader and the only place in the world featuring 21 colors of peanut M&M’s—it’s the perfect family excursion you’ll find without leaving Las Vegas Boulevard.

The Rare and Exotic... on the Vegas Strip

A collection of the world’s most rare and exotic creatures make their home in Siegfried & Roy’s Secret Garden and Dolphin Habitat at The Mirage (3400 Las Vegas Blvd. South). Children and adults can earn a new respect for the majesty of nature in this palm-shaded sanctuary, where the Royal White Tigers of Nevada, heterozygous tigers, “magical” white lions and a Thai ceremonial elephant can live in harmony and free from danger. One of the most popular attractions on the Las Vegas Strip, Siegfried & Roy’s Secret Garden experience begins with a dolphin habitat that nine Atlantic bottlenose dolphins call home, with all of them born in captivity.

From chocolate to jungle animals, there’s something for everyone to see in Las Vegas.

An Experience That’s “Out of this World”

Don’t go on a ride. Go on a mission. Star Trek: The Experience, located in the Las Vegas Hilton (3000 Paradise Road) will transport you into the 24th Century, where visitors will become a part of the most popular space adventure of all time. After being “beamed” aboard the bridge of the Starship Enterprise, visitors are escorted to never-before-seen parts of the Star Trek universe. It’s a journey that’s guaranteed to be out of this world!