

Make Your Mother's Day

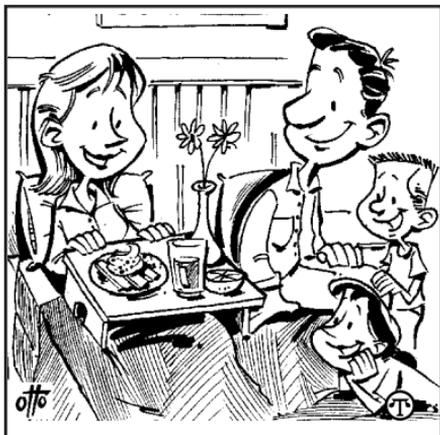

(NAPSA)—With Mother's Day just around the corner, it's a perfect time to plan a surprise that will tell her how much you love her. Rowenta, a manufacturer of high-performance kitchen electrics, has come up with some fantastic and easy ideas that will make Mom feel like Queen for a day.

1. Serve her breakfast in bed. This tried and true way to pamper can be quite simple even if you're the type that is unfamiliar with how to crack an egg. Rowenta has a new toaster that senses the heat from bread of any thickness so that your toast never comes out "extra crispy." If Mom isn't a toast lady, you can heat a croissant or muffin on the built-in warming tray and bring it to her warm and buttery.

2. While she's relaxing in bed, take pampering into high gear by doing a load of laundry. Be sure to see it through to the end by folding and putting the clothes away.

3. Send Mom to a spa for the day. She can relax, get a manicure, pedicure or massage and have someone take care of her. She will come home relaxed and rejuvenated, with a big smile on her face.

4. If she's not the type that likes to be pampered, you can indulge her in her favorite hobbies. For instance, if she's a gardener, you can go to the nursery and buy her some flowers to plant on her day off; if she's a bookworm, you can give her a gift certificate to the bookstore and let her get lost in the stacks; if she loves the movies, take her to the cinema and let her pick the movie.

From breakfast in bed to a warm cup of tea at the end of the day, making Mom feel special throughout her special day may be easier than you realize.

5. After your tailored day of indulging Mom, let her curl up on the couch with a nice warm cup of tea. The new electric kettle from Rowenta will heat the water in just 60 seconds. The final surprise can be her gift of the kettle in her favorite choice of color.
