

*What You
Need to Know:*

Preparing for the Cost of Alzheimer's Disease or Other Dementia

Many Americans avoid early Alzheimer's disease and dementia testing because they fear a diagnosis. But the ability to detect the disease earlier allows time for critical treatment, as well as financial planning and family discussions concerning long-term care.

Visit BankersLife.com/ALZ1 to learn more about planning ahead.

BY THE NUMBERS

7.1M

PEOPLE WILL BE LIVING WITH ALZHEIMER'S
DISEASE IN 2025

50%

OF INDIVIDUALS
WITH ALZHEIMER'S
DO NOT KNOW THEY HAVE THE DISEASE

$267B

PROJECTED COST
OF ALZHEIMER'S
DISEASE IN 2020

COMPARED TO:

$158B

PROJECTED
COST OF CANCER
IN 2020

$61.4B

PROJECTED COST OF
CORONARY HEART
DISEASE IN 2020

All data sourced from the following: Alzheimer's Association, National Cancer Institute and Medscape.

© 2016 Bankers Life

171693 (09/16)

(NAPSA)—Visit BankersLife.com/ALZ1 to learn more about planning ahead.