

COURT TV'S Safety CHALLENGE

Protect Yourself

(NAPSA)—What would you do if a burglar broke into your home while you were there? How do you protect your kids from cyber stalkers on the Internet? Court TV's Safety Challenge 2001 explores how to avoid becoming a victim of everyday crimes, and will arm you with helpful information and prevention tips to better protect yourself and your family.

Jack Ford, the host of Court TV's Safety Challenge 2001, will test Americans on what they know about protecting themselves, their families and their property.

Despite the fact that crime is down, major findings from the latest National Crime Prevention Council survey showed that most Americans still fear the possibility of being mugged, burglarized or abducted.

Throughout the hour, crime prevention experts will offer their insight, observations and advice on what to do and what not to do when confronted with a variety of some all too common crimes—like a mugging, car jacking and I.D. theft.

Court TV's Safety Challenge 2001 is hosted by ABC News Anchor Jack Ford, and airs on Tuesday, June 5th at 10 p.m. ET/PT.
