

FAMILY FUN

Racing Revs Up Families

Win A Family Getaway To The Races Memorial Day

(NAPSA)—Sometimes, family fun is worth a drive—even if it's only to go 'round in circles! At least that's what racing fans think. In fact, "No other major sport has family woven into its fabric like NASCAR," said FOX NASCAR analyst Darrell Waltrip in a recent edition of USA Today. "...grandfathers, husbands, wives, kids—all together for a day at the races."

So, it should be no surprise that Bush's Baked Beans, a family-owned company, is for the first time co-sponsoring a Busch Series car, #59, driven by Stacy Compton. To celebrate, Bush's is hosting a sweepstakes to send one lucky person with their family to the races at Lowe's Motor Speedway in Charlotte, N.C. on Memorial Day Weekend. While there, the winning family will attend Bush's Camper Cookout and rub elbows with famous racecar drivers and celebrity baked beans spokesduo Jay Bush and his talking dog Duke.

"More than 60 percent of Americans think baked beans are essential at cookouts, and this summer's racing tailgates are no exception," says Jay Bush. "Some of the biggest names in racing are coming to our cookout, and Duke and I can't wait to share this exciting experience with our lucky winning family."

Race over to bushbeans.com between April 6 and May 10, 2003, and enter Bush's Tailgate Trivia Sweepstakes by answering one simple question: Which racetrack—Bristol Motor Speedway, Chicagoland Speedway or Lowe's Motor Speedway—is closest to the home of Bush's Baked Beans? (You can also enter by mailing a postcard with your answer to Bush's Tailgate Trivia Sweepstakes, c/o Ladies' Home Journal®, 125 Park Avenue, 19th Floor, New York, NY, 10017.) Entries must be received by 11:59 p.m. (CST), May 10, 2003.

As part of a new sweepstakes, you could meet Stacy Compton and other drivers.

Answer correctly and you will qualify to win the grand prize of a five-day/four-night trip for four to Charlotte with airfare and hotel accommodations, four VIP passes to Bush's Camper Cookout on Thursday, May 22, 2003, four tickets to the Busch race on Saturday, May 24, 2003, and four tickets to the Winston Cup race on Sunday, May 25, 2003. Five runners-up will win a 22½" Weber® One-Touch® Gold charcoal grill, perfect to take tailgating or fire up in the backyard.

So get going—the race is on! For more information and official rules, visit www.bushbeans.com.