

New Real Estate Guides Are Invaluable

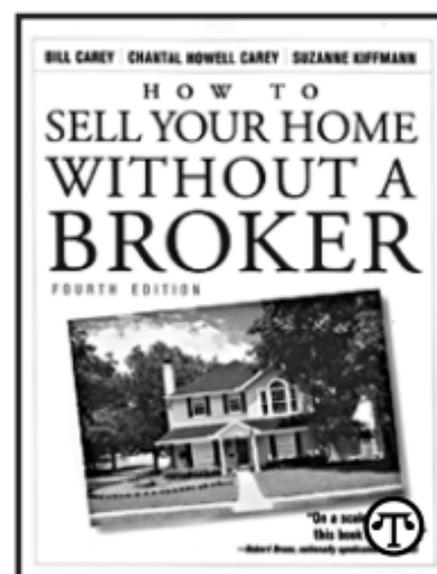

(NAPSA)—Whether you're buying or selling or investing, three new real estate books can give you the tools to make the right move.

“The Complete Guide to Real Estate Finance For Investment Properties” (Wiley, $24.95) shows readers how to analyze single-family, multi-family and commercial property.

“How To Sell Your Home Without A Broker” (Wiley, $19.95) gives invaluable advice and guidelines for selling your home yourself. It can save you thousands of dollars in real estate fees and commissions, showing you how to successfully market, negotiate, close and wrap up the sale of your home—without paying a broker's high fee.

“Real Estate Millions In Any Market” (Wiley, $19.95) by Terry Eilers teaches you the most innovative techniques you can use—in any market condition or geographic area—to create a fortune by buying or selling real estate with little or no money down.

All three books are available at bookstores or by visiting www.wiley.com.