Sampling A Scoop Of Hollywood Fun

(NAPSA)—If you watch reality TV, you know that Americans love to pick a winner—and now there's a chance to choose from five delicious new contestants.

That's because a favorite brand of light ice cream has introduced its second-season lineup of "American Idol" light ice cream flavors. Ice cream lovers can sample this year's hopefuls and cast a vote for their favorite flavor—offering a scoop of Hollywood fun for the entire family.

These Dreyer's/Edy's Slow Churned light ice cream flavors will have a sweet opportunity to shine in the spotlight while dishing up their individual personalities:

Cheesecake Diva: This delightful diva may catch your eye with its creamy, luxurious cheesecake light ice cream that commands the spotlight with decadent brownie bites and an entourage of fudge swirls.

Cookies 'n Dreamz: The stuff that dreamz are made of—down-home chocolate light ice cream filled with crunchy pieces of chocolate cookie.

Mint Karaoke Cookie: Who's that dreamboat on stage? Here's an undiscovered star who's ready for prime time: a cool-headed mint light ice cream with a crescendo of chocolate cookies.

Most Orange-inal: This mix-master performs with genuine freshness and flair. Creamy vanilla light ice cream blended with swirls of refreshing orange sorbet creates a sensational new beat.

One Split Wonder: Flash in the carton or here to stay? This flavor hits the stage with rich banana

“American Idol” finalist Melinda Doolittle wants you to vote. Is it luxurious Cheesecake Diva or dreamy Mint Karaoke Cookie?

Ice cream lovers and “Idol” fanatics can cast votes for their favorite flavors at Slowchurned.com until May 31. The winning flavor will earn a permanent spot in the Slow Churned light ice cream lineup. Fans who cast a vote before April 29, 2008 will be entered for a chance to win a trip to the “American Idol” finale and other cool prizes.

To celebrate the new flavors, the show's Season Six finalists Melinda Doolittle and Chris Richardson will be hitting the road on a 20-city U.S. tour, performing and meeting fans.
