Smart Swimsuit

(NAPS)—Helping women look and feel like the beautiful people they are may not sound like a typical business model but it's what's worked for one American company.

In fact, Miraclesuit, which boasts the slogan "Look 10 lbs. lighter in 10 seconds," has been secretly slimming women for years. Founded over 75 years ago, it innovates to make the wearer look and feel her best, while boosting egos and drawing people out into the sunshine.

A line of American-made swimwear helps many American women look and feel better.

According to the fashion business experts at Women's Wear Daily, "Celebrity stylists, fashion editors and TV producers view Miraclesuit as a 'must have' for their fashion features." Many women looking to slim their figure and boost their ego agree.
