

Holiday Travel

Spectacular Festivities Highlight Roman Holidays

The spectacular view of the Eternal City from the Rome Cavalieri Hilton's rooftop garden add to lasting holiday memories.

(NAPSA)—Enticing menus, value room rates and exciting activities add up to an enchanting holiday gift for you and your loved ones—an extra special way to say “Buon Natale” and “Nuovo Anno Felice.”

From December 20 to January 6, the Rome Cavalieri Hilton offers special room rates to celebrate the holiday season. Situated in a 15-acre private park, this magnificent hotel features 372 guestrooms, including 25 suites—all with private balconies overlooking the city's monuments.

The winter holidays are fun for all ages, with special activities for children and elegant events allowing adults to celebrate in style. Holiday menus are showcased in the hotel's restaurants, including La Pergola, Rome's award-winning restaurant with two Michelin stars.

The Rome Cavalieri Hilton's concierge can arrange private limousine service, personal shoppers and provide advice on the best places in Rome for last-minute holiday gifts. Complimentary shuttle service is available to Via Veneto and the shopping area.

The deluxe hotel offers six food and beverage venues, indoor and outdoor pools, a full-service spa and tennis courts. A highly prized art collection is featured throughout the public spaces and suites. The main lobby and bar showcase original 19th century oils and paintings by the Italian artists Margherita Caffi and Giuseppe Zais, displayed above the concierge and reception area.

Superior rooms are priced from $278 and deluxe rooms, with panoramic views of the Eternal City, start at $326. Visitors may also opt for the new Executive Floor Rooms that start at $395 and allow guests Clubroom access with all-day snacks, drinks and private concierge services. All rates (contingent upon Euro exchange rates) are per room, per night, single or double occupancy, and include tax and a full buffet breakfast.

For reservations, call the Rome Cavalieri Hilton directly at 011-39-063-5091, send a request by fax to 011-39-063-509-2241 or visit www.cavalieri-hilton.it.