

Texas Island Is A Gulf Coast Treasure

(NAPSA)—Travelers seeking small town charm and big city fun on an island full of possibilities may want to add Galveston off the Texas coast to their vacation plans.

A growing number of people have found Galveston Island, Texas offers more than 60 attractions, including beach parks, beautiful homes, museums, and land and sea tours. An historic Landmark District and an Arts and Entertainment district offer an array of shopping, dining and other entertainment attractions.

Galveston Island, Texas is becoming a vacation destination for a growing number of travelers.

This year, The Galveston Island Convention and Visitors Bureau and Pepsi Cola have joined forces to offer Pepsi Beach Bucks—coupons worth $1,000 in discounts at various hotels, motels, shops and attractions.

In addition, Pepsi is sponsoring a series of events over the Spring season throughout the Island including a series of “Party in the Park,” live entertainment events downtown.

To learn more, call 888-GAL-ISLE. To download Pepsi Beach Bucks, visit www.galvestoncvb.com.