

BOOK REVIEW

The Love Knot

(NAPSA)—A young governess and a daring highwayman...these are all the ingredients award winning author Rebecca Brandewyne needs to sweep the reader along on a daring dash through nineteenth-century England. The Love Knot (MIRA Books, $6.50)

With a masterful knowledge of the era, Rebecca Brandewyne sweeps readers along through nineteenth-century England.

recounts the adventures and perils that enter a young governess' life when she becomes inextricably caught up in the affairs of a forbidding earl, a mysterious highwayman and an eerie presence haunting the harsh and inhospitable Cornish moors.

Driven by striking similarities, Verity Collier begins to suspect that her employer, Lord Jago Ransleigh, is also the notorious highwayman Black Jack Raven and determines to uncover the truth.

The Love Knot is available wherever paperbacks are sold, or through www.mirabooks.com.