

How To Find This Fall's Best Looks

(NAPSA)—How do you separate this fall's must-haves from the rather-nots? Ask an expert.

According to style experts, this season's looks feature dark, murky colors, plaids, skinny pants, puffed sleeves and lots of bows. Looks to love include:

- Leggings and tights paired with anything from evening gowns in bright prints and front split to floaty dresses.

- From classic wrap dresses for work to elegant dresses to party in, designers showed plenty of dresses. Newness came in the form of a relaxed silhouette. Many fell loose from the shoulder. When restrained, dresses were belted at the waist.

- Most fashions were shown in cloudy colors, plenty of black, white and gray, with one exception—a very wearable red.

- There's a new emphasis on the waist—from corset to empire. Every designer showed wide belts, usually in black.

- The season's lip colors are intense shades of purple, orange and red, which means that tooth whiteners are also on the list of essential beauty products. A dazzling smile is a must-have accessory. After looking at the sparkling teeth of models and movie stars, it's hard to settle for a less than lustrous smile.

Style experts say that nothing finishes off a look better than a healthy, bright, white smile and today there are many ways to get that perfect smile outside of your dentist office, making white teeth affordable on any budget.
