Timeless Jewelry For The Woman In Your Life

(NAPSA)—If you are looking for a holiday gift for someone special, here's a gem of an idea. A delightful collection of diamond jewelry celebrates the unique, beautiful woman—mother, daughter, wife—who is an important presence in your life, holds everything together or keeps in motion the many different aspects of the universe you share.

After all, diamond jewelry is a keepsake that can be passed down, a beautiful accessory that can be worn every day, and a special gift to give during the holidays and year-round to show your appreciation and love.

All the jewelry in The Center of My Universe™ collection from Forevermark features a central Forevermark diamond surrounded by a halo of pavé diamonds.

responsibly sourced.

Invisible to the naked eye, the inscription is made using proprietary technology from the De Beers group of companies. It is also recorded on the personalized identification card, which comes with each and every Forevermark diamond.

The actual size of the inscription is one-twentieth of a micron deep and can only be seen using a special viewer, which can be found at jewelers authorized to carry the line. It has been confirmed by leading gemological institutes that the inscription does not affect the internal quality of a diamond in any way.

Those concerned about the social aspects of the diamond industry will be glad to know that the company states that the diamonds selected for the pieces in the collection only come from sources that are committed to the highest business, social and environmental standards. Not only are they conflict-free, but the company says that the sale of these stones benefits the people, communities and countries from which they originate.

Each and every business that serves as a partner in the supply chain must meet the Forevermark Integrity Requirements—a set of rigorous standards for the diamond industry.

The world's leading independent auditor, Société Générale de Surveillance (SGS), inspects and monitors every Forevermark partner to ensure compliance with these standards on a regular basis. This ongoing process ensures that the company's supply chain is deemed responsible at every stage and the company's Pipeline Integrity is preserved and maintained.
