Undeniably Glamorous

(NASPA)—For many women, the ultimate fashion accessory is a rich, glamorous scent that can turn heads and turn ordinary to extraordinary. However, as fashions change, it can be difficult to keep up with trends—what's in style today could be outdated tomorrow.

For more than 30 years, one popular scent has been turning heads.

One way to stay ahead of the curve is with an ultra-fashionable fragrance that's always stylish. For example, a scent that's been in the air since 1968 is still drawing attention with its layers of rich floral notes—including ginger lily, hyacinth, heliotrope, jasmine and rose.

Norell is an original, a trademark fragrance for the fashion-savvy woman that makes a bold statement—as an accessory or as an aromatic gift for the woman in your life.

Norell fragrance and gift sets are available at mass retail outlets and drug stores.
