What's Cool For School

(NAPSA)—Whatever you wear to school this year, make sure it's colorful, recommends celebrity stylist Jeanne Yang. "Color is in," says Yang, and it's the perfect time to add some bright, bold accents to the wardrobe. Here are a few tips:

For fall, fashion experts suggest using music accessories to make your outfit pop.

- Accentuate with complementary colors. Pairing colors that blend well—i.e., adding red to pink, green to blue, etc.—creates a look that's not only well-coordinated but eye-catching.

- Use color to personalize your style. "Color is a non-verbal way of expressing identity," says Yang. "So show off those true colors and have fun reflecting that personal attitude."

- Accessorize with electronics. Portable audio products have become "must-have" fashion accessories, keeping one both fashionable and entertained. Sony's PSYC line of portable audio players, for example, comes in different colors to coordinate with personal style. Pair them with matching StreetStyle headphones, and your gear is ready for anything.

From new clothes to tech-savvy accessories, it's easy to find a rainbow of colors to complete your look this fall.
