

What's Your Table Wearing?

(NAPSA)—America is seeing a revival of the art of entertaining. Where can hostesses find help?

The answer may be a new DVD by Joan Backes, Sue Snodgrass and Marty Vanaskie. They've combined their entertaining styles and many tips in "What's Your Table Wearing 4 The Seasons?" This table-setting etiquette and decorating guide is divided into: etiquette, fall, winter, spring and summer.

A delightful DVD can help you entertain in style.

According to these entertaining gurus, decorating and entertaining do not have to be time consuming or expensive. For example:

- In just a few steps, wrapping paper can find new life as place mats.
- Old Valentine cards can be recycled and used as part of a centerpiece in following years.

"Entertaining with panache and care is a way to show your guests that you appreciate them and their friendship," said Backes. "Your guests know they are special and that you are glad to have them in your home."
