(NAPSA)—If you have seen—or heard about—Pastor Benny Hinn, you have plenty of company. Millions of people around the world have attended Hinn’s services or watched his television show, “This is Your Day.”

Millions have heard Pastor Benny Hinn speak in 2004 and millions more will hear him in 2005.

Hinn’s first book, “Good Morning, Holy Spirit,” was translated into 40 languages.

Already one of the world’s most popular missionaries, Hinn also may be one of the world’s busiest people in 2005. His healing ministries were witnessed by millions of people during his 35 appearances in 2004. In fact, 4.8 million people attended three services in India, prompting observers to consider them the largest healing services in the history of the church. Hinn has raised his goals even higher for 2005—with 22 appearances already scheduled and more in the planning stage.
